The Murray Debuts the Sunday Brunch of Choice

Hong Kong, 10 May 2019 – From May 2019 onwards, The Murray offers the Sunday brunch of choice with a veritable feast for all ages and fun-filled activities for the young ones.

The elegant semi-buffet begins with freshly shucked French oysters served by the table, followed by a made-to-order egg dish and creamed green asparagus topped with lavender foam. Guests help themselves to a delightful spread of all-time favourites – from healthy salads, smoked seafood, charcuterie and pastries to premium cheese selection. Gourmet lovers should look no further than the crispy and succulent Roast Peking Duck at the carvery station.

Epicures are spoiled with a selection of six main courses to choose from. Green Pea Barley Risotto, enriched with Hon Shimeji mushroom, crispy shallot and light Parmesan foam, offers interesting layers of texture in one bite. For the Roast Chicken Roulade, another highlight of the brunch, the French corn-fed chicken is accompanied with heirloom carrots prepared three ways – shavings, grilled with cumin seeds and puréed with ginger, showcasing the versatility of ingredients and creativity of the mastermind behind the dish. For an extra indulgence, Roasted White Miso Cod Fish and Grilled Wagyu Beef Striploin are available at a supplement of $128.

Those with a sweet tooth are tempted with our impressive dessert station, presenting The Murray's art of confectionery. Guests can also opt for a special beverage package to enjoy unlimited pours of NV "R" de Ruinart Brut champagne, beer, house white and red wines.

While adults are immersed in the sumptuous feast, younger guests are well taken care of – a delectable array of kids' favourites from ice cream cart and mini burger to cheese macaroni to popcorn is offered, along with rotating activities such as face painting, balloon twisting and magic performance to keep them entertained.
