Hong Kong SAR, China, 12 October 2022 – Riding on the success of the previous theatre dinner in September, The Murray, Hong Kong, a Niccolo Hotel will be taking our guests onto an immersive journey through time at Popinjays with the mystery case – “The Missing Fortune” Theatre Dinner on 27 October 2022. Set in the 19th century, an invaluable art piece was reported to be missing during a Sun Yat-sen’s celebratory dinner. Guests will become one of the participants at the scene and engage in solving this crime puzzle between delectable courses by Chef de Cuisine, Lexine Hepworth.

Throughout the evening, characters dressed in costumes will walk around the dining room and interact with guests, while the suspects will be interviewed by the hosting inspector. Clues and hints will be slowly revealed to the guests, which their detective talent can take the spotlight and solve the crime puzzle.

Among the guests who can guess the correct culprit of the case, a lucky winner will be chosen to get the grand prize as reward. For the October dinner, the prize will be a complimentary Afternoon Tea for two at Popinjays (valued at HKD 875).

Another star of the show is the accompanying five-course menu showcasing Chef Lexine’s culinary techniques. Highlighted signatures in the menu include Beetroot Cured Salmon, a home-cured salmon fillet with a vibrant garnish of fennel and grapefruit. The crunchy tapioca chips, creamy black garlic mayonnaise and crisp fennel makes a fun and appetising combination. Tomato Consomme is the refreshing and bright palate cleanser, with rich tomato tartare, light crème fraiche and a kick of tabasco. Carabinero Prawn is a beautiful contrast of flavours between a gently poached Carabinero prawn and a shock of piquillos pepper puree, fresh blood orange slices, sautéed edamame with sweet shallot and a dash of espelette chili. Australian Wagyu Tenderloin is the main course carefully slow-cooked for a deliciously juicy and tender texture. The premium cut is also served with crunchy butter glazed beetroots, sautéed fresh
