Luxury Black Truffle Tasting Menu at Niccolo Suzhou

16 November 2021 (Suzhou, China) — Black truffles can arouse the appetites of customers because of their unique and strong smell, being intoxicating, imperious and beautiful. Yet the taste comes and goes quickly, a fleeting encounter you should not hesitate to try. Europeans compare it to the black diamond which can also be eaten.

Truffles are widely used in Italian cuisine, especially with pasta and seafood. From 16 November to 30 November, the chef de cuisine of Niccolo Kitchen introduces a complete set of seasonal tasting menus for black truffles with selected fresh ingredients. Multi-course Italian dishes with truffles including Veal Tartar with Truffle, Capesante al Tartufo, Tagliolino al Tartufo, Champagne Risotto with Truffle, Truffle Garden and many more.

Chef's Recommendations:

Capesante al Tartufo

As an appetiser, scallops with toasted mushrooms may look good, but when bitten, it's astonishingly delicious. Scallops fried in truffle butter, wrapped in the scent of black truffles, taste sweet and charming. Paired with crispy toasted mushrooms, celeriac fondue and chanterelle, your taste buds will be instantly conquered.

Tagliolino al Tartufo

Fresh and fragrant truffle slices are scattered on the creamy Tagliolino, and the freshly slow-cooked egg yolk, carefully prepared by the chef, wraps around each strand of noodles. The Parmesan cheese enhances the scent of the truffles and each bite will bring rich, unbridled satisfaction.

Truffle Delight

A soft and delicate microwave cream cake mix with fresh truffle slices, making the texture very rich. The top is decorated with truffle ice cream, just like a plate of fresh truffle sprouts in a French garden.

This season's black truffles tasting menu offers both a la carte and set menus for a whole month! How about finding a bright day to enjoy your good mood during this best season?
